

Yellow Butterflies - Mary Raymond Shipman Andrews

Yellow Butterflies
Mary Raymond Shipman Andrews

The title of this historical fiction could as well have been "A Soldier's Mother" or "An Unknown Soldier". There are indeed butterflies, and there is a small boy who grows into a fine, strapping young man who goes to war. But this moving novella centers squarely on the young man's mother, her love for him and her abiding faith. (Summary by Lee Smalley)
